The Oceanography (OC) Department in the Graduate School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at the Naval Postgraduate School (NPS) invites applications for the position of tenure track Assistant Professor in the field of coastal physical oceanography. We are seeking candidates with core strengths in areas such as: coastal and nearshore processes; field experimentation; and coastal modeling and data assimilation. The successful candidate is expected to develop an externally funded research program that spans basic to applied research areas and involves graduate students. The candidate must have a strong commitment to graduate teaching.

We are seeking a colleague to join our vibrant OC Department, which has a long history of excellence in physical oceanography, ocean acoustics, ocean dynamics, nearshore processes, ocean waves and turbulence, ocean analysis and prediction, and high latitude ocean dynamics. The OC Department has a strong research infrastructure, such as facilities and vessels located in close proximity to Monterey Bay, CA, an experienced group of technical staff, and computational resources. The OC department promotes interdisciplinary research and encourages research collaborations with the number of oceanographic institutions located around the bay. Additional information can be found online at http://nps.edu/Academics/Schools/GSEAS/Departments/Oceanography/index.html
Minimum qualifications:

- Requires an earned doctoral degree in coastal physical oceanography or related field that supports the OC Department’s instructional needs
- Evidence of teaching aptitude
- Evidence of potential to advise student theses and dissertations
- Evidence of strong potential for scholarship leading to scholarly publications
- Must currently hold or be eligible for a Secret clearance
- U.S. citizenship preferred

A letter of application including CV, statement of teaching and research interests and philosophy, and the names of three referees should be sent by July 31, 2015 to:

Dr. Jamie MacMahan, Faculty Search Committee Chair
