Information Sciences Department Newsletter

Sponsor: Dan Boger
Editor: Mark Nissen

Publications

Presentations (not included in conference proceedings above)

Hayes-Roth, F. (2007). Getting ahead of the Avalanche: How everyone can benefit from a near-infinite amount of technology. Keynote Address, MESDA’s 15th Annual Conference, Maine’s Software and Information Technology Industry Association. (MESDA has since been renamed TechMaine)

Grants and Funding

Gallup, S.P., “Support for FORCEnet Innovation & Experimentation Program,” Office of Naval Research (ONR) and NAVNETWARCOM. $880,000.

Gallup, S.P., “Support to NAVNETWARCOM Innovation and Experimentation Program, Trident Warrior and Limited Objective Experiments (FY 08),” Office of Naval Research (ONR) and NAVNETWARCOM. $250,000 (parts 1 and 2 of 3 installments).

Hayes-Roth, F. “Architecture Support for CMA JCTD and MIEM,” Naval Research Laboratory, DC. $160,000.

Awards

Significant Professional Activities

Mark Nissen was invited to lead a session entitled “Knowledge Dynamics: 11 Principles for Afloat Knowledge Managers” for the Navy Afloat Knowledge Managers Course, San Diego, CA (November 2007).

LtCol Carl Oros attended two Command and Control Research Program Workshops: (1) Focus and Convergence Challenges for Complexity Science 16 -18 Oct 07 and (2) Applying Complexity Science to Address Focus and Convergence Challenges held at Evidenced Based Research, Vienna, VA. LtCol Oros also attended the follow on work shop on Innovative Organizations and Complex Systems, Ottawa, Canada, 22-23 Oct 07.

PhD Student Accomplishments