SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS:

Thomas is believed to have been born in the castle of Roccasecca in the old county of the Kingdom of Sicily, which is now known as the Lazio region of Italy, in 1225. In the 16th century, the university in Paris Thomas often taught at was renamed the College of Saint Thomas, and in the 20th century it was relocated to the convent of Saints Dominic and Sixtus before being transformed into the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas. Saint Thomas' comments and philosophical writings are still debated today, and his aesthetic theories, such as the concept of claritas, deeply influenced the literary writings of James Joyce and Italian semiotician Umberto Eco. Saint Thomas is often depicted with an open book or writing with a quill.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL WEEK OPEN HOUSE:

San Carlos School would like to you to our National Catholic School Week Open House on Tuesday, January 30th, from 8:00-11:00am. We welcome all families seeking a faith-filled learning community. We nurture the whole child by integrating spiritual and moral development with high academic standards. We serve the local and global community by fostering a spirit of stewardship, safety and peace. We invite you to come see what makes San Carlos School a special place!

WANTED:

Preschool teacher for Religious Education.

BIBLE STUDIES STARTING AGAIN AT SAN CARLOS CATHEDRAL:

SEEK—A Scripture Class, Inc. has a morning Bible Study Class which is just completing a Christmas break. We will resume on Tuesday morning, January 9th, from 9:30 'til 11:30 A.M. Class will be held in the Foyer of Cathedral Hall. We will study the readings from both the Old and New Testaments that you will hear at Mass the next Sunday. For more info call Dr. Joann Branson (831) 375-8603, or email: drjoannb@aol.com, or just come to class on Tuesday at 9:30 A.M. No prior registration or Bible knowledge is required. All are welcome!

SEEK will also restart our evening Bible Study on Tuesday, January 9th, at 7:00 P.M. in St. Joseph's Center. We will continue with St. Paul's Epistles, the Books of 1 & 2 Timothy and Titus. Much of our Catholic Faith comes from these books. Please join us for this fascinating examination of Our Lord’s plan for our salvation. Questions: Dick Gorman, 595-6363.
