

Assistant Professor of Computer Science, specializing in Cyber Security
AD-1701-03
Department of Computer Science
Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, CA

The Naval Postgraduate School (NPS) is accepting applications for the position of Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science. The focus of Cyber Security includes network and systems security, cloud and distributed security, digital forensics, and cyber-physical systems.

We are the Department of Computer Science at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. Our students are primarily military officers seeking masters degrees, some civilians entering the Cyber Corps, and a few PhD students. They are all exceptional. We specialize in cyber security, networking, modeling and simulation, autonomous systems, software engineering, and data science. Our research addresses hard problems in national security; we foster close collaboration with our military, civilian, and international graduate students, supported by state of the art laboratories. We are close to the technology hubs of San Jose and Silicon Valley and very well connected in the US Navy and DoD cyber security and big data communities. We are 40 faculty with 20 tenure track professors. Additional information about our department can be found at <http://nps.edu/cs>.

We seek to fill the position as soon as possible and will consider applications on a rolling basis until the positions are filled. In your application package include your curriculum vitae, names of three references, and a sample of your published work, if any. Tell us in your cover letter why you are interested in this position and comment on your initial research goals, teaching interests, and capabilities.

Minimum qualifications:

- Must have a PhD in a related discipline.
- Must currently hold or be eligible for a Secret clearance.
- Must be a U.S. citizen.

Forward the application package to Dr. Robert Beverly, Search Committee Chair, Computer Science Department, Naval Postgraduate School, 1411 Cunningham Rd GE-314, Monterey, CA 93943. Email: rbeverly@nps.edu.

Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Relocation package, including recruitment/relocation incentive may be authorized. The position will remain open until filled.

The Naval Postgraduate School is an equal opportunity employer. For additional information about NPS, please refer to the website at <http://www.nps.edu>.
