NAVAL POSTGRADUATE SCHOOL
Commencement Ceremony
DECEMBER 17, 2021
“We need leaders of character, leaders that speak the truth and always choose the harder right over the more convenient or expedient wrong. NPS has given you powerful tools, and we are relying on you to use them to make us stronger.”

Admiral Michael Gilday, USN
Chief of Naval Operations

“The complexity of the modern battlefield and increasing rate of change requires a highly educated force. While different, education and training are inextricably linked. Education denotes study and intellectual development. Training is primarily learning-by-doing. We will not train without the presence of education; we must not educate without the complementary execution of well-conceived training. As the 31st Commandant of the Marine Corps noted – “any mission undertaken by the Corps will flow directly from our ability both to train and educate every Marine.”

General David H. Berger, USMC
Commandant of the Marine Corps
NAVAL POSTGRADUATE SCHOOL

The Naval Postgraduate School provides an unparalleled learning and research environment. NPS is a place where operationally experienced officers from the joint services, civilians from various defense and homeland security organizations, and international students from nearly 60 countries come together to learn from, and work with, a world-class faculty focused on global security issues vital to our national security strategy.

The institution is responsive to rapidly emerging and ever-changing strategic and tactical requirements. Curricula are rigorously tailored to meet the nation’s changing defense needs, while simultaneously maintaining the same high accreditation standards as civilian universities.

An NPS education extends far beyond the Monterey campus, reaching warfighters both at sea and in the field, engineers in defense laboratories, and international participants who are enrolled in distributed learning and professional education programs throughout the globe.

On any given day faculty and student research addresses critical real world requirements relevant to combatant commander and warfighter needs through a unique integration of government agencies, commercial enterprises, other notable research universities and our allies.

An NPS graduate has the intellectual know-how and the practical skills to make the most of today’s resources. NPS graduates are the cornerstone for developing tomorrow’s defense technologies, systems and programs.

The individual schools are accredited by the Western Association of Schools & Colleges, the Accreditation Board for Engineering & Technology, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business and the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs & Administration. Additionally, The North Atlantic Treaty Organization has recognized NPS as an Alliance-wide Partnership for Peace Education and Training Center.

...Master your future.

CAPT BRANDON S. BRYAN, USN
Retired Vice Adm. Ann E. Rondeau was appointed as President, Naval Postgraduate School on January 29, 2019. She brings to the assignment an unparalleled record of leadership and achievement within the military and academia in the areas of education, training, research, executive development, change management, and strategic planning. Prior to her appointment, Adm. Rondeau served as the sixth president of the College of DuPage. Her most recent military position was as the President of the National Defense University, a consortium of five colleges and nine research centers in Washington, DC.

Rondeau has extensive leadership experience in significant military and educational roles. In 1985, she was selected and served as a White House Fellow in the Reagan Administration and went on to serve as the Deputy Commander of the U.S. Transportation Command in Illinois, Pentagon Director/Chief of Staff for the U.S. Navy Staff, Commander of the Navy Personnel Development Command in Virginia, Commander of the Naval Service Training Command at Great Lakes, Ill., Pacific Fleet Staff Chief of Staff in Hawaii, Commanding Officer of Naval Support Activity in Tennessee and other staff and commanding responsibilities with policy, support and student service. Rondeau retired from the U.S. Navy as a three-star admiral in 2012 and was the second woman to have achieved that rank in the Navy. She then served as a partner and later an independent consultant with the IBM Watson group.

Rondeau holds a B.A. from Eisenhower College (NY), an M.A. from Georgetown University (DC) and an Ed.D. from the College of Education at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. She also holds an honorary Doctorate in Public Service from Carthage College (Kenosha, WI) and an honorary Doctorate in Humane Letters from Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine and Science (Chicago, IL).

She is a proud member of the Arizona State University Flag Officer Advisory Council, the National Museum of the American Sailor Foundation Board of Directors, the Military Advisory Board (under the aegis of Center for Naval Analysis), the Dwight D. Eisenhower Memorial Commission, the Chicago Regional Growth Corporation Board, Choose DuPage Board of Directors, and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Additionally, Dr. Rondeau serves on the Executive Board of the U.S. Navy “Education for Seapower Study” — a clean-sheet review of naval learning.
Dr. Scott Gartner
Provost and Academic Dean
Naval Postgraduate School

Dr. Scott Sigmund Gartner is The Provost and Academic Dean of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, where he also serves as Professor of Defense Analysis. He previously held the position of Director of the Penn State School of International Affairs, where he remains a Faculty Affiliate. Gartner’s interdisciplinary, multi-method, research focuses on great power conflict, international security, war and politics, counterterrorism, conflict mediation and policy assessment and is both impactful and well cited.

Gartner’s publications include Costly Calculations: A Theory of War, Casualties, and Politics, Strategic Assessment in War, International Conflict Mediation: New Approaches and Findings and The Historical Statistics of the United States, in addition to articles in top journals in political science, sociology, international affairs, national security, history, military intelligence, public policy, international negotiations, and communications. His honors include the Jefferson award for the best government resource, the RUSA Outstanding Reference Award, Booklist Editor’s Choice Award, Library Journal Best Reference Award, History News Network Book of the Month, and the American Political Science Association’s best policy thesis award. He is past president of the International Studies Association (West) and served as a Senior Advisor for the Net Assessment of Violent Non-State Actors for a U.S. intelligence agency.

Gartner’s research has been funded by the National Science Foundation, the National Security Agency, The National Counter Terrorism Center, the Folke Bernadotte Academy, the Department of Defense, the Taiwan Foundation for Democracy, and the Sloan foundation. Gartner’s op-ed columns have been published in The Huffington Post, USA Today, The Christian Science Monitor, The Baltimore Sun, and many other outlets. He holds a PhD. and MA in Political Science from the University of Michigan, and BA in History and MA in International Relations from the University of Chicago.
Lieutenant General (Retired) Eric P. Wendt
NATO Special Operations (2019–2021)

Lieutenant General (Retired) Eric Wendt retired on 01 March 2021 after 34 and half years of active duty commissioned service in the United States Army. He spent four and a half years in the Light Infantry, and 30 years in Special Forces “The Green Berets,” including 13 years of command at tactical, operational and strategic levels. Wendt served in 56 different countries during his career, and his service included 55 months of combat deployments in multiple locations around the globe, including multiple combat deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Wendt served as an active duty Army officer since graduating as the top ROTC cadet / George C. Marshall award winner from the University of California at Santa Barbara in 1986. After completing Airborne and Ranger training (graduating as the Officer Leadership Graduate at Ranger School), he was assigned to Ft. Ord, California and the 7th Infantry Division (Light), where he served as a rifle platoon leader, company executive officer and scout platoon leader. He then attended the Special Forces Assessment and Selection Course and was selected, and went on to earn his Green Beret as Distinguished Honor Graduate of the Special Forces Qualification Course in 1991. He subsequently served in Special Forces for 30 years and as of his retirement date was the longest continuously serving Special Forces-branched Green Beret of any rank in the entire Army still on active duty, a distinction known as “The Old Grey Fox.” Wendt also retired as a three-star / lieutenant general, which as of his retirement date was the highest rank achieved by any career-long Special Forces-branched Green Beret since the creation of the Special Forces (AKA “The Green Berets”) in 1952.

In addition to a few staff jobs, he commanded at every level of Special Forces and Special Operations from captain to lieutenant general. Before becoming a General Officer, he commanded at the ODA, Company, Battalion, and Group levels. He also served as the Team Chief for the Pacific Situation Assessment Team (PSAT) in Indonesia immediately following 9/11, and as the Team Chief on other overseas Special Operations taskings. Wendt also served on Humanitarian Demining missions in Thailand, Cambodia and Vietnam. Wendt also served as the Principal Military Assistant to Secretaries of Defense Robert Gates and Leon Panetta.

As a General Officer, after serving for a year as the sole deputy commanding general (for both operations and support) for the 13,500 troops from a 17-country multi-national region in Afghanistan, he commanded the Sub-Unified Theater Special Operations Command (TSOC) Special Operations Command-Korea (SOCKOR). Wendt next commanded the U.S. Army John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center and School (USA-JFKSWCS), Fort Bragg, North Carolina, followed by service as the chief of staff of the United States Pacific Command (USPACOM). Next, in his first three-star job, Wendt served as the U.S. Security Coordinator for Israel and the Palestinian Authority, leading an eight-country coalition, reporting directly to the US Secretary of State, and serving throughout Jordan, Qatar, Egypt, Israel, the West Bank and other Middle East locations for two years. In his final assignment, Wendt commanded the NATO Special Operations Headquarters, Mons, Belgium from 2019-2021, overseeing 27,600 special operators from 30 countries of NATO.

Wendt received his master’s degree from the Naval Postgraduate School in what is today the Defense Analysis program. He later completed a yearlong academic fellowship at the Naval Postgraduate School. He was recognized as a Distinguished Alumnus of the Naval Postgraduate School in 2018. He speaks Arabic and Korean. His awards and decorations include the Defense Distinguished Service Medal, the Army Distinguished Service Medal (two awards), the Bronze Star Medal (three awards), the Humanitarian Service Medal (2 awards), the U.S. Department of State Superior Honor Award, the German Gold Cross of Honor (earned during combat service in Afghanistan), the Philippines Presidential Unit Citation (for service in Operation Enduring Freedom-Philippines), the Republic of Korea President’s Cheon Su Medal, and the Thai and Korean Master Parachutist Badges. LTG Wendt was also awarded the US Air Assault Badge, the Master Parachutist Badge, the Ranger Tab, the Special Forces Tab, the Expert Infantryman Badge, and the Combat Infantryman Badge.
