Lecturer/Senior Lecturer of Computer Science
Department of Computer Science
Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, CA

The Naval Postgraduate School (NPS) is accepting applications for a Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in the Department of Computer Science (non tenure track). While we encourage all qualified candidates to apply, we are especially interested in candidates with strong CS core topic teaching experience and expertise in artificial intelligence, data science, distributed systems, machine learning, or security.

Our department specializes in cyber security, networking, modeling and simulation, autonomous systems, software engineering, and data science. Our research addresses hard problems in national security; we foster close collaboration with our military, civilian, and international graduate students, supported by state-of-the-art laboratories. We are close to the technology hubs of San Jose and Silicon Valley, and are well-connected in the US Navy and DoD cyber security and big data communities. Additional information about our department can be found at https://www.nps.edu/web/cs.

We seek to fill the position by September 2019 and will consider applications on a rolling basis until filled. In your application package include your curriculum vitae, research and teaching statements, and the names of three references. The appointment will be made at the Lecturer or Senior Lecturer level, depending upon the candidate's seniority and experience.

Minimum qualifications:
- Must have a graduate degree in a related discipline.
- Must currently hold or be eligible for a Secret clearance.
- Must be a U.S. citizen.

Forward the application package to Dr. Robert Beverly, Search Committee Chair: rbeverly@nps.edu

The Naval Postgraduate School is an equal opportunity employer. For additional information about NPS, please refer to the website at http://www.nps.edu.

NOTE: IF YOU ARE A VETERAN, you are strongly encouraged to: Identify your Veterans’ Preference on your resume or elsewhere in your application package (type of preference, dates of service, date of VA letter, character of service, etc...)
